A number of Sonoma and El Verano sports enjoyed a hay ride to Petaluma last Sunday evening in one of the Mission Garage's delivery trucks. The boys had a grand time but all fell asleep on the way home. They all reported work Monday morning and mum is the word.

Willie McEhan, who is under the management of Paul Vanucchi, won his fight at San Francisco last Friday evening against Jack Herick. The latter outweighed McEhan by ten pounds and the "slapper" handed him an awful beating and McEhan is now in line for some top-notch matches.

"Easy Jim," Vineburg's wide-awake reporter for the Index-Tribune, was in town Saturday. Easy reports everything lovely in Vineburg. The Hay Market

Somers & Co., in their weekly bulletin on the condition of the hay market under date of November 26th say:

"Receipts of hay during the week were somewhat heavier than we have been receiving of late, a total of 2272 tons arriving in comparison with 2005 the week previous. Owing to the very dull demand the heavier receipts, and the prospect of excellent green feed in the Northern part of the State, the local market is for the moment lower, it being now impossible to obtain the prices which were prevailing several weeks ago. Although comparatively little hay is held in first hands in the country, yet a good portion of this hay is now being offered for sale, although for the most part at prices prohibitive for shipment to this market. A decrease in receipts would naturally tend to strengthen the situation here as would any increased demand, but at present there is nothing to indicate more active trading.

"Alfalfa has been arriving in limited quantities by rail, the river crop being practically cleaned up. Prices on alfalfa are weak also, there being quite a large quantity of alfalfa offered at reasonable prices at points in the northern part of the San Joaquin Valley, which districts have an excellent crop this year."

THE ANTI-ROAD HOUSE ORDINANCE

District Attorney Lea Has Issued a Statement to the Effect
That it Will be Tested
in Court

The all-absorbing topic of discussion in this valley the past two weeks has been the Anti-Road House Ordinance having for its purpose the closing of every saloon outside incorporated cities in Sonoma County. The ordinance received a majority vote at the election on November 5th and under its provisions every road house in the county was supposed to close last Sunday at midnight. They kept open, however, as the saloon men will test the validity of the ordinance in the courts.

On Saturday last District Attorney Clarence F. Lea issued the following statement in regard to the matter.

"I do not believe anyone can say with absolute assurance that the newly adopted initiative ordinance is or is not valid before the higher courts have passed upon the question as to its legality. I shall proceed upon the theory that the ordinance is valid until the courts have held otherwise.

"The public, as well as the liquor dealers concerned, are interested in having an early determination of the question. The ordinance will go into effect on next Monday, if at all. Assuming that the liquor dealers affected by the ordinance will continue to conduct their places of business, we will immediately start proceedings to enforce the ordinance, which will present the question of its validity to the courts. We hope to have a final decision by the first of the year.

"As the initiative ordinance prescribes no penalty for its violation, no criminal prosecution can be founded on that ordinance. But there are civil remedies by which the question involved can be presented before the first of January, and we shall proceed in that manner.

"If the ordinance is finally held valid the Board of Supervisors will have no authority to issue any valid license contrary to its terms. In that case any person who sells intoxicating liquor in violation of the ordinance after the first of January would be guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable under the old liquor ordinance passed by the Board of Supervisors.

"I do not expect to take proceedings against anybody for running before that time, except one or more liquor dealers for the purpose of securing a decision on the ordinance. If the validity of the ordinance is established we will, of course, thereafter proceed to enforce it wherever violated."

MRS. FETTERS WINS IN APPELLATE COURT

Judges Say She Was Not Guilty of Contempt of Court and Set Aside Sentence of Justice of Peace
Campbell

The case of Mrs. Emma Fetter, who was adjudged guilty of contempt of court by Justice of the Peace Campbell of this place, last September, and sentenced to serve one day in jail and to pay a fine of $100, came up on appeal from the Superior Court of this county before the Appellate Court in Sacramento last Saturday and the case was decided in Mrs. Fetter's favor.

The Judges ordered that she be discharged from custody. This is not the last that will be heard of this case and it is only the beginning of the end, as a civil suit for damages against Judge Campbell and others is threatened for false imprisonment.

The attorney for Mrs. Fetter who argued the case before the Appellate Court was Wm. F. Cowan of Santa Rosa.

Denies the Soft Imprisonment

A. Marcucci of Agua Caliente, who was reported to be a candidate for appointment of Road-overseer of Agua Caliente district, informs us that he is not now, never has been nor never will be a candidate for the appointment. This news will no doubt be a great relief to the ten or fifteen other candidates who are scrambling over each other to secure the job.

A dancing school will open here shortly in Dunbar Hall on Broadway under the instruction of Miss Marion White of San Francisco. Children's class at 2 p. m. and adults at 8 p. m. A dancing school has been long needed here and it will be a great advantage to the young people of both town and valley.

Victorious Athenians

Sonomaites should appreciate a good basket ball team more than they do.

Judging from the crowd last Monday night an outsider would think that it was a Prohibitionist meeting in a radically "wet" town instead of attending a good basket ball game. Although the score was 52-20, with the Athenians on the long end, it was snappy throughout.

Dresel played his usual quick clean game and Wood, right guard, was in the thick of it all the time managing to throw ten field goals. Sweetman, center for Sebastopol, certainly is there on the jump. Bedford of Vallejo refereed. A game will be played on Friday, Dec. 6th.

1913 Models of the Indian Motorcycle.

Following the "14 important improvements" of 1912, the Hendee Mfg. Company announce no less than a dozen additional new features in their 1913 model of the Indian Motorcycle.

By far the most significant feature of the new machine is the Cradle Spring Frame. It is something entirely new, a radical departure from the conventional bicycle and recent motorcycle systems of "springing." Briefly, the new device consists of the application to the rear wheel of the Indian Cradle Spring device as used on the front fork for the past three years.

Extending back horizontally from the frame joint cluster under the saddle, flanking the rear mudguard, are two 7-leaf Chrome Vanadium steel springs. The "C" shaped curls at the rear end of these springs are connected by stays to bell cranks on which the rear axle is hung. The forward end of the rear fork has a hinge joint which enables the rear wheel to yield to imperfections of road surface. All shocks are completely absorbed by the leaf springs. The rear wheel can go through almost any vertical motion without affecting the body of the machine. There is no "bottom" to this spring device. The life of the machine is greatly increased.

The Engineering Department of the Hendee Mfg. Co. devoted 18 months of exhaustive test to the Cradle Spring Frame before finally deciding on its adoption for all models of the 1913 Indian.

In addition to the Cradle Spring Frame, the 1913 Indian embodies 10 other important improvements which will be appreciated by motorcycle riders in general. Prices remain the same as last year.

New style, single clinch rims; larger tires, wider mud guards front and rear with larger splashers; casing for upper stretch of transmission chain and curve of sprocket; larger luggage carrier in rear, fitted to all models; foot rests as well as pedals, fitted to regular 4 h. p. and 7 h. p. models; foot brake lever fitted on left side now operates hand-brake as well as the pedal action; larger size multiple disc clutch now fitted to all models alike; improved Indian type saddle.

All 1913 Indians will be chain driven, and finished in Indian red only.

TRAGEDY ON CARNEROS CREEK.

Fred Neuenschwander is Foully Murdered by Chris. Carey Last Tuesday Night.

Fred Neuenschwander, a young rancher on Carneros creek, was foully murdered by Chris. Carey near the Huichica stone bridge just over the Sonoma county line in Napa county, last Saturday night.

The murderer was detected by his victim keeping an assignation with his wife at the bridge and a fist fight ensued. Carey, seeing he was getting the worse of the encounter, drew a pistol and shot the outraged husband dead. He then made good his escape.

The murderer is well known in this valley as the driver of the Ambrosio Cream Company of Napa.

Death From Lockjaw.

Gustav Schult, a farmer residing on the Baxter tract, died in great agony of lockjaw last Saturday, the result of neglecting a splinter in one of his fingers. Blood poisoning soon set in and he still refused to call in a physician, and when seized with lockjaw he was beyond medical skill, a victim of his own neglect. The funeral of deceased took place Monday, the remains being interred in Valley Cemetery.

Concert and Dance.

The second monthly concert and dance of the Cadet Band will be held in Union Hall on Saturday evening, December 7th. The first concert given by the cadets was a great success and we predict a crowded house next Saturday night. An admission fee of 25c will be charged for adults and 10c for children.

The Stork Gets Busy.

The stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kennedy of Schellville last Saturday morning and left a baby boy. The bird also alighted in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pallati of Buena Vista and presented them with a baby girl. Dr. Thomson, the attending physician, reports the mothers and their babies as getting along nicely.

Y. M. I. Mask Ball

The Y. M. masquerade ball held in Union Hall on Thanksgiving eve was both a social and financial success. The prizes awarded were as follows: First prize, prettiest ladies' costume, Miss Adele Livershush; second prize, most comical costume, Lloyd Holz.

Automobile and Motorcycle Notes

The Mission Garage, agents for the Indian Motorcycle, has just received word from the Hendee Manufacturing Co., that it has made many radical changes in Indians for 1913. Watch out! Our announcement containing these changes, together with the great surprise, "The Price," will soon be made.

The Hudson automobile for a lady to drive is just the thing. Starts by simply pressing a button. The Hudson six-cylinder car is conceded by experts to be the fastest thing on wheels. The stock touring car will do eighty miles an hour. Some people will say this is altogether too fast, but power means speed. The other extreme of speed is four miles an hour on the high gear. To show the flexibility of the motor the car will from a standing start get a speed of 60 miles an hour in 30 seconds. What other motor will do this without choking? This car to responsible people will take care of for three years. Before buying a car see the Mission Garage they can save you money.

Emmet Gottenberg recently met with a very painful accident in the machine room of the Mission Garage while operating a lathe. The fingers of one of his hands got caught in the machinery and were badly lacerated.

VINEBURG NEWS ITEMS

"Easy Jim" Tells in an Interesting Way all About the Week's Happenings in and About His Section of the Valley.

Geo. W. Reed, the veteran railroad and insurance man of Sonoma, was a visitor here Sunday.

Frank Cassidy of Sterling is the guest of his brother, George H. Cassidy at his home near here.

Arthur Batto, accompanied by his nephew, Fred Batto Jr., made a business trip to Petaluma last Saturday.

Some one has started the report that a young lady of Vineburg won the goat at the recent gobbler raffle. Not so. Didn't lose a goat.

Mr. and Mrs. John Batto departed for San Francisco last Wednesday morning, where they will be the guests of Mr. and Mrs. August Figone for two weeks.

We are sorry to report that an accident happened to the chief engineer of the Gundlach-Bundschu Wine Company's plant. A large wrench fell on his foot and hurt his feelings.

A number of lumber men are engaged in dressing large blue gum timbers in Jenkins' grove near here for shipment to Honolulu where they will be used for harbor improvements in that city.

His honor, the Mayor, is now engaged when not attending to his official duties in pruning the blue gum hedge surrounding his home-stand. He says he intends pruning his whiskers when they get ripe.

Among the number of aspirants for the position of roadmaster of this district is Erland Steiger, and many people think that he has all the qualifications and experience to fill the position and if appointed will be the right man in the right place.

Jim Small has perfected a recipe for a fruit cake, the principal ingredient being sterilized evaporated mushrooms. Jim at one time was a chef on a Junior Monarch lay press and of course knows his business when it comes to cake. Believe me.

Two Sonoma society men passed through the burg Saturday on a visit to the metropolis. It was James Modini and Victor Beretta and it is said that they returned Sunday evening by way of Petaluma. Some one started the rumor that they landed in Sonoma on a hay rack, but that is not so. Fannie Ferndale says it is a lie.

If Vineburg cannot be anything else she can be original. Our esteemed citizen, Enrico Forini, has leased the new building adjoining his summer resort to some church people who are holding divine services therein every evening, and he reports that the business of his Pleasant Villa bar is improving wonderfully. Leave it to Vineburg to help cut the sky-pilots.

Minnie Madden informs me that Ethel Eastlake told her that she thought that instead of newspaper reporters being rattle-brained she thinks they are smooth articles. As it is, it is reported in exclusive circles that in the near future Archibald McKiver, the popular and versatile reporter of the Index-Tribune at El Verano, will be the recipient of a valuable present in the shape of a beautiful doll. We wonder if it is "Belle Brandon."

EASY JIM.

"MY FRIEND FROM INDIA."

The Play Was Successfully Staged by Local Talent in Union Hall on Friday Night of Last Week.

The play entitled "My Friend From India," produced under the management of A. L. Wells, an old-time theatrical manager, and sustained entirely by local talent, was successfully staged in Union Hall on Friday night of last week before a large and appreciative audience. The cast of characters were as follows:

Augustus K. Shaver... Mr. Ralph Holz
Erasmus Underholt... Dr. J. F. Bateman
Ten Valentine... Mr. George Chase
Rev. J. Von Tweedle... Mr. K. Perin
Jennings, the Butler... Mr. Alfred Jensen
Flannery, the Foreman... Mr. J. L. Kochat
Miss Marian Hase... Mrs. J. A. Kinsella
Mrs. Beekman Street... Mrs. P. McMillen
Miss Bernice Underholt... Mrs. Ralph Holz
Mrs. Gertrude Underholt... Mrs. E. Robinson
Thillie... Mrs. J. Gottenberg

Every character in the play was remarkably well sustained without a single exception, so much so that we refrain from mentioning any particular one. Nor is it necessary to make a full-scale dramatic criticism of the play, as did our contemporary down the street in his Wednesday's edition, who, after exhausting nearly two columns of space in reviewing the play, made a miserable failure as a dramatic critic.

On the whole the stage settings were good, the acting a credit to those who took part and the stage management under the direction of Mr. A. L. Wells proved him to be the right man in the right place.

INCORPORATION OF EL VERANO AND AGUA CALIENTE

An Open Letter to the People of the Affected District by a Large Resident Property Owner.

BY CHAS. SPINDLER.

That the Appellate Court has put a damper on the high volting feelings and happiness of the country lawyers, the professional agitators, capitalists, and real estate men of the Anti-Roadhouse League by declaring the last election on the proposed Ordinance invalid, should not in any way disturb the question of incorporation of the district.

The expected closing of roadhouses and saloons in the district should not be the only or main reason of this object, and therefore a friendly and objective discussion for and against it should be continued.

As for the Wyllie Law and its instigator he got what he deserved for the introduction of the one-sided act, viz: his district refused to re-elect him, thus by keeping him away from Sacramento avoiding more damage. In fact now that the Wyllie Law is not exactly what our country lawyers wanted or as interpreted by them, or as expected it to be, they likely also are satisfied that he was beaten at the last election.

Looking at the official election returns and especially at the vote for or against the Roadhouse Ordinance, we find that Cloverdale gave the Ordinance a majority of 28, Healdsburg 179, Petaluma 300, Sonoma 50, Sebastopol 102 and Santa Rosa 777. The incorporated cities gave that proposed muzzling Ordinance a majority of 1436.

One can draw a few very simple conclusions from these figures. For instance, store-keepers and merchants in incorporated towns voted for it, because they wanted to make the farmers and country people come to their wet city to buy booze and by the way groceries and merchandise. That the Ordinance would have closed the country stores as well as roadhouses, would have suited the city merchants to perfection. If they had to vote on closing saloons in their home towns, the majority would no doubt have gone the other way.

But what does it matter as long as it was a "straw vote" or a "big joke" and not costly at that. The next one created by the effervescent brains of certain would-be and has-been lawyers may cost us more.

Not for keeping saloons open, but for keeping their license fees in the district, not for circumventing the Wyllie Local Option Law but for self governing, we should keep the question of incorporation before us.

We need better streets and roads and improvements, and for what little there is done under the supervisory administration we are paying infinitely too much. The system of appointing road-masters, water wagons drivers, etc., is antiquated and nothing but favoritism or paying the help for being elected Supervisor. This is often called political graft. With a good workable charter in an incorporated city it can be prevented. As a district we can demand the closing of saloons under present ordinances of the Board of Supervisors, but we are helpless against blind pigs, gambling dens and places of vice—helpless I say, because too much trouble and annoyance is connected with closing these. But under city administration the responsible officers or commissioners can easily be reached.

It is an old established fact that a successful politician holding an office will never forget, but keep personal promises. However, all publicly made political promises he ignores after being elected. This is another dangerous side, i. e. if one big influential man in a supervisory district exacts personal promises from the candidate before election to the detriment of all others. Three commissioners in an incorporated city could not be had in this manner, and the people in general would be served better by these than by a Supervisor under a big wealthy boss with his pocket full of pledges and promises.

Mr. Mouyer, in his open letter, said that we are not prepared or ripe yet for the incorporation, and "I do not think that rushing this matter will do it any good." But a careful consideration and making oneself acquainted with the underlying facts will do no harm, because sooner or later we are compelled to incorporate the district and I hope and wish that it will be for the benefit of all.

Referring once more to taxation I am convinced that a more just taxation, based upon correct as-essed valuation would follow incorporation. However, it would be a like heavier burden to the big landowners. As an example, I offer:

I own 72 acres at the assessed valuation of $3300. My neighbor owns 517 acres assessed at $3140, several times the amount of land, mostly along side of me, but at less taxes. The valuation of improvements on mine is taxed at $1200 and the improvements on his place, a big mansion, several hundred chicken houses, outbuildings, several hundred feet of brooderhouses, egg and incubator house with incubators in same that hold over 12,000 eggs are assessed $260 valuation. On special school and road taxes I pay for 72 acres $17. He pays for 7 times the land $10.54. Such miscarriage of taxation could not exist in any, even the worst governed incorporated town.

WET CITIES VOTE TO MAKE COUNTY DRY

Anti-Road House Ordinance Was Defeated Out Side of the Cities, But Was Successful in Incorporated Towns

The correct vote on the anti-roadhouse ordinance in Sonoma county was as follows:

The incorporated cities voted: For the ordinance, 3,600; against the ordinance, 2,226; the majority for the ordinance in the cities, being 1,374.

In Supervisor Green's district, the Second, which had already voted dry and not affected by the ordinance, the vote was: In favor of the ordinance, 929; against, 656, making a majority for the ordinance 273.

The districts directly affected by the ordinance voted as follows: Against the ordinance, 2,839; for the ordinance, 2,541. Majority against the ordinance, 298. The majority against the ordinance of the incorporated cities was 25.

A BLOOD MEDICINE WITHOUT ALCOHOL.

Recently it has been demonstrated by experiments on animals that alcohol lowers the germicidal power of the body and that alcohol paralyzes the white corpuscles of the blood and renders them incapable of destroying disease germs. Disease germs cause the death of animals and of man.

A blood medicine, made entirely without alcohol, which is a pure glyceric extract of roots, such as Dandelion, Salsaparilla, and others, and which has been extensively sold by Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, for the past forty years as Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. The reason for its success is that it is like Nature's influence—the blood is purified in the body and gives rise to the blood—the vital fires of the body burn brighter and their increased activity consumes the tissue rubbish which has accumulated during the process.

Dr. V. V. Zander, the founder of the famous "Hotel and Surgical Institute," and a physician of large experience in practice, was the first to make up an ALTERNATIVE EXTRACT of roots, without a particle of alcohol or narcotic.

"It is with the greatest pleasure, that I write to let you know of the great benefit I received from the use of your medicine and self-treatment in my case." writes Mrs. Wm. H. Hays, of Lady Smith, B.C. "I suffered from three years from a running sore. Consulted four doctors but they failed to cure or give relief. Finally I was told I was in consumption and would have to consult a specialist. Concerning my case, that the doctor here said we could not before the wound would heal. A kind friend advised me to write to Dr. Pierce, which I did, and after seven months use of the treatment the sore healed, and I enjoy better health than I ever did. I dressed the wound with Dr. Pierce's All-Healing Salve and took the 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Pleasant Pellets' for my troubles. I should also recommend your medicines."

Laid In a Stock.
When the late Pierre Lorillard was a boy, his mother, being annoyed by moths that destroyed the wooden clothing and other material of the household, agreed to pay him a cent apiece for every moth he would kill in the house and bring to her. The same bargain was made with his brothers, Jake, George and Louis. In course of time Mrs. Lorillard noticed that, while the other children collected from her at intervals from 10 to 25 cents, Pierre drew on her frequently for a $1 at a time, endorsing his drafts with 100 dead moths. Investigation revealed the bent of the future financier as well as his early adaptability to methods governing the acquirement of wealth. Having procured from a furrier some pieces of fur thrown away because they were infested with moths, Pierre secreted them in an old chest in an unused closet. There the quickly accumulating moths were banked, to be drawn upon whenever the inventor and perfecter of the enterprise required pocket money.

Knighted Actors.
It is an odd fact that of the English actors knighted all but one had first to legalize the names under which they had won fame. The question arose with the first proposition to confer knighthood on a gypsy. It would be absurd so to honor one John Henry Brodribb. Yet legally no such person as "Henry Irving" existed. No such obstacle had to be overcome when, on the occasion of Victoria's diamond jubilee, Squire Bancroft knelt before his queen and arose sir squire. However, the three actors knighted by King Edward bore cognomens of their own invention. Sir Charles Wyndham was born Colverwell, and Sir John Hare, Fairs. As for Sir Herbert Beerbohm Tree, his brilliant wife once put it "Tree" is a fantastic thing we just tacked on. We're all plain Beerbohm—plain as brother Max!"—Argonaut.

The Old English Prize Ring.
In the latter days of the English prize ring innumerable expedients had to be devised to bring off a fight. A favorite plan was to pitch the ring on the borders of two counties, so that the question of magisterial jurisdiction might be rendered difficult. Another plan was to charter a steamboat and proceed down the Thames to some lonely police forsaken spot in the marshes of Essex. For the memorable contest between Sayers and Heenan in 1860 a special train was run from London bridge to a secret destination. But the passengers, who comprised members of parliament, peers, clock-makers, pugilists, clergy and, it is said, a few bishops, cheerfully took tickets simply marked "excursion." They presently found themselves near Farnborough, in Surrey, where the fight occurred.—London Chronicle.

Original of Falstaff.
Sir John Fastoff was the original of Shakespeare's Falstaff and in his day was a continual butt for the jests of the town and borough of Southwark. Though he had fought at Agincourt, when Jack Cade invaded the borough, he showed great cowardice. When Cade was yet some way off Fastoff had armed and fortified his house and garrisoned it with veterans of the French wars. On the arrival of Cade, however, he withdrew his garrison and fled to the Tower, leaving his neighbors to the mercy of the rebels. Fastoff's matrimonial adventures seem also to have been another source of unpopularity, for, having married a widow named Scope, he seized her property and kept his stepson out of his inheritance during his own lifetime.—London News.

"Great Expectations."
Charles Green, one of Dickens' illustrators, had two models, one of whom was a likable fellow, while the other, Gregory by name, was a greedy self-seeking character, always thinking of himself and his perquisites. When Green was on his deathbed Gregory was very officious, and one day Green, noticing this, said to him: "Oh, I haven't forgotten you, Gregory; got you down in my will." At the funeral Gregory invested in a wreath and duly attended to hear the will read. Green had kept his word, and the model was not forgotten. "To my dear friend Gregory," ran the document, "I leave, for his kindness to me, an illustrated edition of 'Great Expectations.'"

Against His Principles.
"What was that man making such a fuss about?" asked the restaurant proprietor.
"He found a couple of hairs in the food, sir," replied the waiter.
"Oh, is that all?"
"You see, sir, he's a vegetarian, and you can't get him to eat anything but vegetables."—Yonkers Statesman.

Neatly Parried.
A mother of four daughters, one of whom had recently been married, cornered an eligible young man in the drawing room.
"And which of my girls do you most admire, might I ask?"
"The married one," was the prompt reply.—Exchange.

Easier.
"I'm going to the dentist's to have this tooth out. Just mind the baby till I come back." Husband (with alacrity)—You mind the baby, Jessie. I'll go and get a tooth pulled out!

Her Bait.
"You have to have different bait for different fish, don't you, ma?"
"I guess so. I know I caught a lobster with mistletoe."—New York Press.
